

Mexico has been mourned by all of the citizens of his State; and

Whereas such loss has been mourned by all who knew him, whether personally or by his outstanding contribution to his country; and

Whereas the loss of this distinguished public servant, advocate of human rights, husband and father, is felt in greatest depth by the widow of the late Senator Chavez and his family; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the board of directors of the Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce does hereby join Mrs. Dennis Chavez, the late Senator's family, and his many friends in mourning the loss of this truly great American; and be it

Resolved, That in mourning this loss of U.S. Senator Dennis Chavez, great recognition and tribute be given his exemplary career of public service, his continual advocacy of human rights and the dignity of man, his wisdom and foresight attested by the many facilities and programs in New Mexico and the rest of the Nation for the defense and general welfare of Americans and his lifelong tenacity in fighting for those concepts and beliefs which he held to be true and the best interests of his Nation; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this corporation and copies delivered to Mrs. Dennis Chavez, the family, the late Senator's Staff and the Secretary of the Senate of the United States.

STUDIES OF MATTERS PERTAINING TO FOREIGN POLICIES OF THE UNITED STATES—REPORT OF A COMMITTEE

Mr. FULBRIGHT, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported an original resolution (S. Res. 25) and submitted a report thereon (S. Rept. No. 1); which resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration, as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, is authorized under sections 184(a) and 186 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended, and in accordance with its jurisdiction specified by rule XXIV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, to examine, investigate, and make complete studies of any and all matters pertaining to the foreign policies of the United States and their administration.

Sec. 1. For the purposes of this resolution the committee, from February 1, 1963, to January 31, 1964, inclusive, is authorized (1) to make such expenditures; (2) to employ upon a temporary basis, technical, clerical, and other assistants and consultants; (3) to hold such hearings, to take such testimony, to sit and act at such times and places during the sessions, recesses, and adjourned periods of the Senate, and to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, and documents; (4) to take such testimony; (5) to employ, upon a temporary basis, such technical, clerical, and other assistants and consultants; and (6) with the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies concerned, and the Committee on Rules and Administration, to utilize the reimbursable services, information, facilities, and personnel of any of the departments or agencies of the Government, as the committee deems advisable.

Sec. 2. In the conduct of its studies the committee may use the experience, knowledge, and advice of private organizations, schools, institutions, and individuals in its discretion, and it is authorized to divide the work of the studies among such individuals, groups, and institutions as it may deem appropriate and may enter into contracts for this purpose.

Sec. 4. Expenses of the committee under this resolution, which shall not exceed $50,000 for the period ending January 31, 1964, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the committee.

CONTINUANCE OF STUDY OF ACTIVITIES OF NONDIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES OF FOREIGN PRINCIPALS—REPORT OF A COMMITTEE

Mr. FULBRIGHT, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported an original resolution (S. Res. 26) and submitted a report (No. 2) thereon; which resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration, as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations, or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, is authorized under sections 184 and 186 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended, and in accordance with its jurisdiction specified by rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, to continue its study of the activities of nondiplomatic representatives of foreign principals including, without limitation, foreign governments, foreign political parties, and individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, organizations or other combinations of individuals, whether foreign or domestic, acting in the place of, or in the interests of, or on behalf of a foreign government or foreign political party, tending or intended to influence the foreign or domestic policies or interests of the United States.

Sec. 2. The committee is further authorized under sections 184 and 186 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 to give thorough consideration to existing and proposed legislation relating to the activities of nondiplomatic representatives of foreign principals, as aforesaid, and to make such recommendations with respect thereto as may be found by it to be appropriate.

Sec. 3. For the purposes of this resolution the committee is authorized from February 1, 1963, to January 31, 1964, inclusive, (1) to make such expenditures; (2) to hold such hearings, to sit and act at such times and places during the sessions, recesses, and adjourned periods of the Senate; (3) to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, and documents; (4) to take such testimony; (5) to employ, upon a temporary basis, such technical, clerical, and other assistants and consultants; and (6) with the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies concerned, and the Committee on Rules and Administration, to utilize the reimbursable services, information, facilities, and personnel of any of the departments or agencies of the Government as it deems advisable.

Sec. 4. The expenses of the committee under this resolution which shall not exceed $50,000 for the period ending January 31, 1964, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the committee.

Sec. 5. The committee shall complete its study and submit to the Senate not later than January 31, 1964, such results of the study herein authorized together with such recommendations as to existing or proposed legislation as herein authorized as may be found by it to be appropriate.

FUNDS FOR STUDY OF MATTERS PERTAINING TO INTERAGENCY COORDINATION, ECONOMY, AND EFFICIENCY—REPORT OF A COMMITTEE

Mr. HUMPHREY, from the Committee on Government Operations, reported an original resolution (S. Res. 27) to provide funds for the study of matters pertaining to interagency coordination, economy, and efficiency, which was referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration, as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on Government Operations, or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof, is authorized under sections 184(a) and 186 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, as amended, and in accordance with its jurisdiction specified by rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, to examine, investigate, and make a complete study of any and all matters pertaining to interagency coordination, economy, and efficiency.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this resolution the committee, from February 1, 1963, through January 31, 1964, is authorized (1) to make such expenditures as it deems advisable; (2) to employ upon a temporary basis, technical, clerical, and other assistants and consultants; Provided, That the majority is authorized at its discretion to select one person for appointment, and the person so selected shall be appointed and his compensation shall be so fixed that his gross rate shall not be less by more than $1,000 than the highest gross rate paid to any other employee and (3) with the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies concerned, and the Committee on Rules and Administration, to utilize the reimbursable services, information, facilities, and personnel of any of the departments or agencies of the Government.

Sec. 3. The committee shall report its findings upon the study and investigation authorized by this resolution, together with its recommendations for legislation, as it deems advisable, to the Senate at the earliest practicable date, but not later than January 31, 1964.

Sec. 4. Expenses of the Committee under this resolution, which shall not exceed $50,000, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the committee.
